LADYBRAND GYMNASTS PERFORMS IN BLOEMFONTEIN

Chantelle van Zyl

Mariahana Brink, coach and owner, bought Kineo Gymnastics in May 2021. She is currently completing her Bachelor's Degree in Education, and has an incredible love for children, sensory play and early childhood development. She describes herself as being dedicated and ambitious.

The little gym program is built around children from 2-3 years, focussing on milestones and learning outcomes. Mini Movers focusses on boys up to 6 and girls up to 5, providing an outlet for kids to develop skills like strength, flexibility, balance and co-ordination. Gymnastics is the next step in early-development sport, which builds self-esteem, confidence, discipline, dedication and concentration, assisting all Gymnasts to reach their full potential.

Last weekend, level 1 & 2 Kineo Gymnasts took part in Bloemfontein as first time SAGF competitors, and their performances were the biggest gift Mariahana could receive as one year anniversary as owner of the club! They will also be taking part in the North Free-State Region in Bultfontein this coming weekend, after that the Northern FS qualifying rounds on the 4th of June, and then Zone on the 24th of June, bringing level 1 to 3 competitions to an end for the year. These were the performance outcomes:

Gold Medal: Botle Masosobele (Level 2).

Silver Medal: Thea Maema (Level 1), Inneke Fourie (Level 2).

Bronze Medal: Ayanah Abdullah (Level 1), Mia Bak (Level 1), Megan-Lee Quadrado (Level 1), Kenzee Wortmann (Level 1), Maruli van Wyk (Level 1), Stephani Bekker (Level 1), Suzaan Coetzee (Level 2), Dané van Niekerk (Level 2), Elandi Bothma (Level 2) and Danielle Chung So Chim (Level 2).

Congratulations and best of luck to all the athletes! For more information, contact Mariahana on 081 025 0043.

MACARONI CHEESE LASAGNE

Ingredients:

- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 400g lean beef mince
- 50g smoked pancetta, chopped
- ½ onion, finely chopped
- ½ celery stick, finely chopped
- ½ carrot, finely chopped
- 1 garlic clove, crushed
- 150ml red wine
- 1 tbsp tomato purée
- 400g can chopped tomatoes
- 250ml beef stock
- 2 bay leaves

Method:

- STEP 1 - Heat half the oil in a large, heavy-based frying pan or casserole dish over a medium-high heat, and fry the mince and pancetta until golden. Transfer to a bowl using a slotted spoon and set aside.
- STEP 2 - Add the remaining oil to the pan and fry the onion, celery and carrot for 10 mins until just softened. Add the garlic and cook for 1 min more, then return the meat to the pan. Tip in the wine, simmer, covered, for 30 mins, then remove the lid and simmer uncovered for another 10 mins until reduced. The ragu will keep in the freezer for up to two months. Leave to cool completely before freezing.
- STEP 3 - Meanwhile, make the cheese sauce. Melt the butter in a saucepan until foaming, then stir in the flour and cook for 2 mins. Stir in the mustard, then remove from the heat and gradually whisk in the milk in small additions. Return the pan to the heat and simmer for 5-6 mins, whisking continuously until thick and smooth. Add the nutmeg, parmesan and 80g of the cheddar, then season to taste.
- STEP 4 - Heat the oven to 200C/180C fan/gas 6, and cook the macaroni in a large pan of boiling water for 5 mins. Drain, then stir into the cheese sauce. Spread the ragu into the base of a large rectangular baking dish (ours was 28 x 22 x 5cm), then spoon over the mac 'n' cheese and gently spread out using the back of a spoon to cover the ragu. Top with the remaining cheddar and the mozzarella, and bake for 25-30 mins until golden and bubbling. Leave to rest for 5 mins, then scatter over a few basil leaves to serve, if you like.

- 1 rosemary sprig
  - 1 tsp sugar
  - 400g macaroni
  - 80g grated mozzarella
  - a few whole basil leaves, to serve (optional)
- For the cheese sauce
- 50g butter
  - 50g plain flour
  - 2 tsp English mustard
  - 800ml semi-skimmed milk
  - small grating of nutmeg
  - 100g grated parmesan
  - 100g mature cheddar, grated
