LHS FAREWELL – NOT SO DISTANT DREAM

Chantelle van Zyl

2020 is being labeled The Lost Year, and while it will forever be remembered by many as the year of confinement, hand sanitizer & face masks, postponed weddings, drive-by baby showers and Zoom classes, to me it feels like students missed out on so many important milestones. First Team Rugby Jerseys were designed, but it will be next year's selected team wearing them. Representative student council, academics and even school socials - all placed on hold.

It was because of the look of longing Anneke Greyling saw in her Grade 12 daughter's eyes that inspired her to take matters in her own hands early in September this year. "Every girl dreams about her farewell, like my own daughter has since grade 8". She says that she just could not bear the thought of these kids only having memories of Covid-19 in their senior year, and wanted to give them something positive to tower above the darkness of negativity of the year that was 2020.

"After receiving a newsletter from the School saying that there would be no farewell, I spoke to my husband Jakob about my ideas as he has to transform it into reality. "After establishing that parents felt comfortable in allowing their children to go to the function, we decided to go for it!"

Anneke says she wishes that all the Grade 12's could have this opportunity, but due to keeping to social distancing guidelines, she feels fortunate to have given this opportunity to 35 students. "We kept the ticket sale prices low as we only wanted to cover some of the costs". 16 October 2020 arrived, and the excitement seen on the faces of the Grade 12's as they arrived at Little Rock, felt like a Cinderella Story. After photos were taken and students had the chance to show off their outfit choices, the group were welcomed at the Ladybrand Sports Club for a sit-down meal - a spitbraai, paired with hearty choices like chicken & potato dishes, side salads, malva pudding with ice-cream & cheese cake.

Anneke says it was such a pleasure organising this event. She ends off by saying: "How could you ever withhold something so special from such a beautiful group of children."

STUDENT ART EXHIBITION 2020

Ladybird

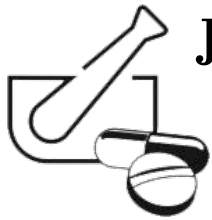

The Ladybird Visual Arts Department's 2020 Student Art Exhibition, titled 'Flourish', opened on 14 October, and will be hanging to the end of month. Members of the public who are interested in perusing the exhibition, are welcome between 10h00 and 16h00 during weekdays.

The title of the exhibition is meant as a deviance of the challenging circumstances brought by the current pandemic. It shows the perseverance of the young artists to move on with their classes and make art. The artworks delivered are therefore, a testimony to their flexibility and innovation to adapt to a 'new normal' via online channels for learning and still produce work.

The exhibition showcases the artworks entered for the 2020 ATKV DIGIKUNS/ART national competition, as well as a collaborative installation, titled 'Sea-dreams.'

WIE ONTHOU NOG VIR LADYBRAND IN DIE 50'S EN 60'S?

Die dokters was dr. Brink, Brand en de Bruyn. Dr. Brink was die rykste het ons kinders gedink, want hy het 'n vliegtuig gehad. Ek wonder vir hoeveel kinders wat nie 'n inspuiting wou gehad het nie, het hy 'n rit met sy vliegtuig belowe. Dit het natuurlik net by belofte gebly. Dr. Brand was 'n regte legende in Ladybrand en ek kan omtrent 'n hele boek skryf oor hom. Hy was die distriks geneesheer. Kwart voor drie in die middag sou jy hom erens onder 'n boom gekry het waar hy gestaan het, want dan was dit sy storie tyd. "Die geheim van Nantes." Die swartes het hom ou "deur die broek" genoem, want as hy nie sy broek betyds afgetrek het nie, het Dr. Brand hom deur die broek gespuit.

Dr. de Bruyn was die stil een. Dr Marais was die tandarts, hy het baie makliker 'n tand getrek as om dit te stop, en jy moes gou keer anders het hy dit getrek terwyl daar nog lewe was.

Waar NMR was, was die fliek. Dit het behoort aan dr. Brink. Vir 18c per kaartjie kon jy enige fliek gesien het. Die agterste ry sitplekke het aan die matrieks behoort. Daar het ons darem 'n lekker vrytjie gevang. Ons het nie baie geweet wat in die film gebeur het nie, maar 'n vrytjie was meer werd as 36c vir twee kaartjies. Buitendien kon jy vir 5c 'n groot sak springmielies koop vir jou en jou "girl".

PEACH AND PROSCIUTTO FLATBREADS

Who knew everything you needed to make your pizzas taste wood-fired was already in your backyard? Fire up your grill to give these flatbreads a beautiful char.

Ingredients:

500 gm pizza dough
3 peaches or nectarines, each pitted and cut into 8 wedges
1 tsp. olive oil
Kosher salt and pepper

2 tbsp. fresh lemon juice
2 tsp. chopped tarragon
85 gm Gruyère cheese, grated
2 cup baby arugula
30 gm thinly sliced prosciutto

Method:

Heat grill to medium. Divide pizza dough in half and shape each piece into a 12- by 35 cm rectangle. Toss peaches with oil and 1/4 teaspoon each salt and pepper. Grill dough and peaches until lightly charred, 3 to 5 minutes per side. Transfer peaches to large bowl and pizza dough to cutting board. Toss peaches with lemon juice, tarragon, and pinch each salt and pepper. Sprinkle Gruyère over dough and grill, covered, until melted, 2 to 3 minutes. Add arugula to peaches and toss to coat. Top cheesy pizza dough with prosciutto and peach-arugula salad.

YOUNG TAIKWONDO ATHLETE MAKES HISTORY

Chantelle van Zyl

12-Year-old Peter Coetsee is a Taekwondo student at the Ladybrand Taekwondo Club, under the passionate instruction of sabom Hester Fourie. Peter started pursuing Taekwondo in 2015 when he was 8 years old. It soon became clear that he had the athletic ability for the sport, when he participated in his first championship in September 2015 receiving his first 3 medals. He went on to participate in the Martial Arts Nationals for the first time in 2015.

In 2016 Peter went to the Arnold Classic Martial Arts All Africa Games, where he was selected for the South African President Team to compete at the Martial Arts World Games.

In 2017 Peter returned to participate at the Arnold Classic Martial Arts all Africa Games, winning a Bronze Medal in his class.

At the Taekwondo International Championship, he was awarded the trophy for Indomitable Fighting Spirit, as well as Gold in his class.

2018 and 2019 Proofed to be an uninterrupted sequence of success for Peter, adding 5 Gold and 3 Silver Medals to his belt for his participation in the Taekwondo International Championships.

2020 Proofed challenging for most Athletes as sport had to be placed on hold, but thanks to the dedication of sabom Hester Fourie, not a minute got wasted. She kept Peter fit and, on his toes, and after completing all 10 gradings in 5 years (2015 – 2020), Peter is now the youngest Blackbelt Taekwondo student Ladybrand has ever yielded. Over the period of 5 years Peter competed at various Championships, he got awarded a total of 27 Gold, 13 Silver and 9 Bronze Medals.
