

TEACHER CELEBRATES 40 YEARS OF DEDICATED SUNDAY SCHOOL SERVICE

Correspondent

This year marks an extraordinary milestone for Mrs Lettie Greyling, who has served as a Sunday school teacher at the NG Moedergemeente in Ladybrand for an impressive forty years.

Her commitment, gentle guidance and unwavering faith have shaped generations of young congregants, making her one of the community's most cherished figures.

In addition to her church work, Mrs Greyling also taught at several schools in Ladybrand, where her ability to speak fluent Sesotho helped her connect warmly and effectively with learners from all backgrounds.

Community members fondly describe "Tannie Lettie" as a people-person

- always ready to lend a helping hand, offer a kind word or listen with genuine interest.

Wherever you meet her, she asks after your family with sincere care, embodying the spirit of compassion and service.

Her forty-year contribution stands as a remarkable achievement and an inspiration to the town she loves.

Dink
'n Bietjie

In 'n wêreld waar ons mekaar al hoe minder raaksien, raak dit nodig dat ons ons kleinsieligheid en liggeraaktheid netjies toedraai, 'n posseël daarop plak en dit ver, ver wegstuur...want saamwees – ware saamwees – is broos. Dit vra van ons om die klein gevegte te laat gaan sodat die groot vreugdes weer hul plek kan kry: lag rondom 'n tafel, hande wat help, stemme wat warm klink in die oggendlig.

Te dikwels sien ons hoe mense hulle eie klein koninkrykies probeer bou. Hul bou met trots, maar ver-sterk met kritiek; hul klim op trappe wat gebou is van ander se pyn. Uiteindelik is dit 'n keiser se troon van sand – en die eerste briesie van lewe se realiteit waai dit weg. In hul strewe om bo uit te kom, trap hulle nie net op ander nie; hulle verwoes iets in hulself en laat die mense naaste aan hulle stukkend.

Ons moet onthou: families is nie gewaarborg nie. Die stem wat jy vanaand hoor, kan môre 'n herinnering wees. Daarom behoort ons mekaar sagkens vas te hou, te vergewe waar ons kan, en elke dag opnuut te kies om liefde bo trots te stel. Want uiteindelik is dit die mense, nie die empires, wat bly.
